MAY DAY DANCE A DELIGHTFUL EVENT

ANNUAL PARTY GIVEN BY THE SOCIALISTS A BIG SUCCESS DESPITE THE WEATHER

Despite the inclemency of the weather and the additional handicap occasioned by the necessity of postponing the date from last Friday evening, the Tonopah Socialist local's May ball held last evening in the Miners' Exchange hall was well attended, in fact the attendance was one that reached every expectation of the committee having this pleasant affair in charge. The music by McGuire's orchestra was pleasing and the lovers of the terpsichorean art regretted the closing hour of an evening's program of pleasure that was arranged to suit the most exacting.

WILLIAM CUDDY AND MISS LAURANCE WIN

AN INTERESTING DECLAMATION CONTEST HELD AT THE HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM

Those who attended the third annual declamation contest of the Tonopah high school were treated to one of the best programs of its kind ever given here. The entertainment, although thoroughly advertised, was postponed from last Friday evening. The weather and walking were still unfavorable last evening but the event could not be postponed further because it was an elimination contest to select contestants to enter the state contest in Reno, and that contest begins Friday. There were about 125 present last evening, which in spite of the poor walking was fewer than might have been expected to take an interest and attend this annual high school event.

The speaking and music were all good and each and every member received spontaneous and hearty applause from the small but intensely interested audience.

There was a small admission fee charged to raise money for the sending of the successful speakers to Reno to enter the state meet and to send any student who qualifies for entry to the state track meet, which occurs Saturday of this week. However, financially, the affair of last evening was near a failure. The total receipts were about $25 and the net proceeds about $20. There is a little money in the student body treasury and with this there will probably be enough to send representatives to Reno. The student body wishes at this time to thank the Bonanza, the Butler and the pastime theatres for their kindness in donating advertising space to the high school, for this and other school entertainments.

There was a generous giving of time on the part of those who trained the students for this contest and to them much thanks and credit are due. William Cuddy, who was declared the winner among the boys, was trained by Miss Rieve, principal of the Nye County Normal. Claire Laurance, who was the winner among the girls, was trained by Miss Bray and Miss Sullivan, teachers in the public schools.

There were evidences of careful training and earnest effort and ability in the work of every one of the contestants. Mrs. Bayless, who made the announcement for the judges, stated that they were in close harmony in their decision and that the choosing of the winners was a matter of much difficulty. She complimented all upon their work.

The arrangements for the affair were made by Mr. Jackson of the high school faculty and Chauncey Smith, principal, presided.

The program and judges were as follows:
Piano selection, "Prelude" (Foote). Miss Eleanor Malone; "The Sweet Girl Graduate" (Pauline Phelps); Miss Helen Davis; "Owyhee Joe's Story" (Ronsville Wildman); Miss Gertrude Rippingham; "The Parson's Son" (George Service); Joe Murphy; "Lincoln, a Man Called God" (John M. Thurston); Miss Claire Laurance; known in the past by its splendid performances on the track, is equally as good a car for every day, city and country driving, and will be found to be one of the most consistent, powerful and easy riding automobiles on the American market today, irrespective of price.

There are few cars that can show a record of successful long distance tours equal to that of the Hupmobile. The three trips that President Drake made around the world in his Hupmobile has gone down as a classic in automobile history. The splendid qualities shown by the Hupmobile in many long South African and Australian tours have emphasized the Hupmobile's ability to go anywhere and everywhere an automobile can travel.

The National and Hupmobile exhibit will continue throughout the week of May 3rd. Fred Linz, of the Linz-Sanborn company of San Francisco, Nevada and northern California, distributors for these cars; A. B. Barkman, western district manager of the Hupmobile; A. E. Dale of the Linz-Sanborn company, and A. E. Rutledge, National factory representative, and Burleigh Davison, Pacific coast Hupmobile, and United States tire publicity manager, compose the parties here in charge of the exhibits.

EXAMINATION LAW FULLY EXPLAINED

should be found physically defective. That is a matter that does not concern anybody but his employer. Many men have been found suffering from visual defects, others are hard of hearing, many have their muscles warped and turned by rheumatism. Even the disability of fractured or amputated limbs will not militate against a man retaining his job. If he has given satisfaction he will be kept right where he is. The object of the physical examination is to establish a record for every man employed by companies subscribing to the state industrial insurance fund. Every man's physical condition is entered on a card. In event of a demand for indemnity this card furnishes all the information necessary to establish the fact that the applicant was injured since becoming eligible to compensation from the state. That is all. He will not forfeit any rights nor diminish his chances for full indemnity if the injury was incurred after enrollment. But, if it should be shown that his injury was the sequence of a former accident, such as the reopening of an old wound or the recurrence of a former hernia these facts will qualify the award of damages.

Goldfield's payroll comprises 1200 men, and the mine operators must shoulder the burden of paying for the examination. This amounts to one dollar per capita. With such a company as the Goldfield Consolidated this adds approximately $200 a month to operating expenses. The Nevada Mine Operators are blamed for compelling a physical examination, when as a matter of fact they engaged an attorney to oppose this section of the law, which was insisted on by the radical lawmakers.

BUTLER THEATER

A large and appreciative audience enjoyed the pretty story of "Shore Acres" which was shown at the Butler last evening, it bringing back to many the remembrance of the book, or the play they had seen staged many years before. Another interesting program has been arranged for tonight as follows: "The Jungle Stockade," a wild animal drama of Selig make; the Fable of "The Galumphous Girl," a George Ade Comedy, with which everyone is familiar, and sure of a laugh; and the second episode of "The New Exploits of Elaine," more exciting with every number. In this number Elaine gets possession of a cryptic ring which is the key to the hidden millions; Wu Fang lures Elaine to his rooms in the endeavor to recover it; Kennedy arrives in time to save her from a horrible fate, and Wu Fang, to make his escape has to walk a tight rope over the yawning chasm between two skyscrapers, then cuts the cable over which Kennedy is following hand over hand. Elaine, still ignorant of its value, holds the mysterious cryptic ring.

Tomorrow, a Special Program and Benefit Show for Miss Lavina Shields, the popular local contestant of the Gazette Exposition Trip Contest to San Francisco, the proceeds of the theater going to Miss Shields to assist her in her campaign. Admission the same—10 cents.—Adv.

PASTIME THEATER

"The Dollar Mark," a revival by Hanford G. Judson, correspondent and official reviewer for the Moving Picture World.

Robert Warwick as "Jim" Gresham, and Barbara Tennant, as Alice Chandler, do splendid work and win cordial praise from spectators of "The Dollar Mark." The action opens in Cobalt (the scenes were taken there) and closes in the East—Newport and New York City. A terrible storm has driven the girl into the hut of miner "Jim," owner of the Nell Davis mine, and which the trust, of which Alice's father is one of the leading spirits, wants to get cheaply. The dam above the hut breaks, the waters rush down the valley, and the hut goes with the rest of the primitive buildings. The heavy door of the hut serves Jim and Alice as a raft. The stream washes them furiously along toward a terrible fall. Acting, photography, and stagecraft, all are commendable. It is a good offering of entertainment and a sure feature picture. Remember to see Alice Brady in "As Ye Sow" tomorrow night only.

BIRD RENDERED SNOWBLIND

A bird of unknown variety is making its home in the Tonopah club. The little creature was rendered snowblind when the sun came out after the storm and was captured with ease. It recovered its sight after being taken into the club and became tame almost immediately.
